Civil Contempt Petition No. 27 of 2004

B.C. Joshi & others … Petitioner

Versus

Shasti Ballabh Joshi & others … Respondents

Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J.

This contempt petition has been filed by the petitioner with a prayer to punish the respondents, as the respondents has not complied with the order passed by this Court on 15.10.2003 in writ petition no. 1232 (S/S) of 2003, whereby the court has directed to the respondents to decide the representation of the petitioner within three weeks from the date of production of certified copy of the order.

The contention of the petitioner is that the order of the Court dated 15.10.2003 was submitted before the respondents of 29.10.2003

He has further submitted that the respondents have not complied the order of the court by not deciding the representation within 21 days as directed by the High Court and further the representation of the petitioner has been decided on 05.02.2004 rejecting the representation on illegal grounds.

It is not disputed that the respondents in pursuance to the High Court's order dated 15.10.2003 has considered and decided the representation of the petitioner vide order dated 05.02.2004.

If the petitioner is not satisfied with the order passed by the respondents dated 05.02.2004, he can challenged the same by filing writ petition before this court. The representation of the petitioner has been decided the order of this court has been complied by the respondents.

In view of the above, the contempt petition has no merit and, as such, is dismissed.
